Ray & Virginia Walz

Ray & Virginia started Square and Round Dancing in 1964 and began teaching rounds in 1980. They owned and operated the Salem Square Dance Center in Salem, Oregon for 17 years. They lived and worked in Salem for 45 years. They have 2 sons and daughters-in-law, three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. They will celebrate their 50th Wedding Anniversary this year.

After retiring in 1999, they moved to Mesa, Arizona to teach and cue. Two years later they took advantage of a unique opportunity to cue for caller Marshall Flippo, in Tucson, Arizona, where they continue to cue and teach all levels of Round Dancing and social ballroom. They also cue for Square and Round Dance clubs in the area. They now live in Green Valley, Arizona, a few miles south of Tucson.

They are long time members of URDC and ROUNDALAB, The International Association of Round Dance Teachers, where they served on the Board of Directors for six years and the Executive Committee for two years.

They have showcased and taught and conducted educational sessions at many National Square Dance Conventions. They have conducted Round Dance Teachers Colleges and Cues Schools and are often featured at Week-ends and Festivals.

In their spare time, Ray likes to spend time at the computer and Virginia enjoys crafts, quilting and sewing.
